Tenant is solely responsible for any damage or loss of the Tenant's personal property to the extent that the law permits. Accordingly, the Tenant is required to obtain personal property/renter's insurance with an insurance company properly licensed to do business in the state. This policy must become effective on or before the beginning date of the lease agreement and must be maintained throughout the entire lease term.

If Tenant fails to obtain personal property/renter's insurance, it is a breach of the Lease Agreement.

Unless Married - Individuals must have their own separate policy OR be listed on the policyholder's policy.

Renters Insurance with minimum $100,000 liability coverage

Policy must list additional interest as:
